FIU ISSUES SCAM ALERT!!

The Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago alerts the public of a continuing trend in 'scams' initiated primarily through the Internet. Scam techniques change constantly but retain one common feature – victims are led to believe that they have a chance to obtain a large financial benefit in return for a small up-front payment.

Some scams observed involve FAKE lottery winnings, conferences, inherited wealth, business opportunities, internet romances, work permit assistance and job offers.

Citizens of Trinidad and Tobago including senior citizens have fallen victims to these scams and have lost considerable sums.

S.T.O.P...!!

 STOP SENDING funds to persons you DO NOT KNOW.

 STOP TRANSFERRING your 'hard earned funds' to persons you DO NOT KNOW located in countries abroad based on an email, a letter, a text message, a telephone call or social media contact.

 Do not OFFER or give your bank account details to persons you do not know. This could be an attempt to use your account for illegal purposes.

 PREVENT Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism. SAY NO to persons promising 'free' money. It could be an attempt to steal your money, or to use you to launder money by FRAUD or TRICKERY!!

BE WISE....S.T.O.P!!

Anyone who is aware of fraudulent scams should report it immediately to:

- ❖ The Trinidad and Tobago Police Service, Fraud Squad at Telephone: 1(868) 625-2310; 1(868) 623-2644 and 1 (868)652-8594 or Email: fraud@tpps.gov.tt.
